AN ALL-DEVOURING TRUST

Has Been Organized in Wall Street.

TO CONTROL THE COUNTRY.

English Coast Swept By a Gale Leaving Wrecks and Loss of Lives in its Wake.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 29.—Wall street financiers believe they have discovered the most gigantic trust ever heard of. The scheme of the trust is to control the money market of this city and and through its financial policy the affairs of the entire country. The capital behind the trust is almost unlimited. It is said that it has already begun operations.

Rockefeller, Havemeyer and Pierpont Morgan are said to be in the combination.

A STORM SWEPT COAST.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 29.—The storm which swept over the British coast yesterday did much damage. The gale amounted to almost a hurricane. It was accompanied by snow and hail. A long list of wrecks and fatalities are reported from it. A score of bodies have been washed ashore. While the storm was raging falling walls and flying debris added to the loss of life. Vessels are reported to be ashore all along the coast and many are known to have foundered with a probable loss of all hands.

Passenger and mail service across the channel has been suspended.

WITH DOGS AND GUNS.

A Party of Greensboro Hunters are Down in Chatham County.

There'll be a hustling and scattering time among Chatham county rabbits the next day or two. And if there should happen to be a fox lurking in around anywhere he'd better crawl into a deep, deep hole; and those wild turkeys, which escaped the hunter's gun before Thanksgiving, had better roost high.

The hunters are off. They are armed with double-barreled shot guns.

And they carried their dogs along. They are real, genuine hunters, too, and they say that Andrew Brooks can kick a rabbit out of every bunch of grass or broom-seed in the old field.

This may be true and it may not be true. A Greensboro merchant says it's true. Any way, no one will dispute that there are plenty of rabbits in Chatham.

The party is composed of Messrs. R. W., T. T. and A. F. Brooks, and they left on the noon train today for Ore Hill with their guns and a cage of dogs. We wish for them a pleasant outing.

Association of Academies.

The Association of Academies of North Carolina will hold a meeting in Raleigh, beginning Tuesday, Dec. 28th. This Association now embraces in its membership the leading academies and high schools of the State, and the coming meeting promises to be well attended and and very helpful and interesting. An attractive programme has been arranged. The principals and teachers of the private schools for secondary instruction in North Carolina may become members of this Association.

Reduced rates at hotels and on railroads have been secured for those who attend. A full programme may be had by addressing the Secretary, W. T. Whitsett, Whitsett, N. C.

Straight Democratic.

Col. Olds writes to the Charlotte Observer:

Editor Furman, of the Morning Post, was interviewed in his new quarters and was asked what would be the policy of his paper. "Straight Democratic," was the reply. He added: "This fills the bill. I cannot say more before our paper appears next week."

Ample Provided For.

Messrs. Brooks, Mendenhall and Britton returned Saturday night from Charlottesville, Va., where they went to look after their claims against J. H. Nalls, lately assigned, and report that ample provision has been made for the North Carolina creditors and that they will be paid in full.

RED BUCK'S FIRST PATIENT.

Kicked Things at Rate of $1 a Kick. Locked up his Keeper and Left.

A member of the Observer force has received a letter from Red Buck, now in charge of the Keeley Institute in Washington, from which the following extract is made:

We opened in good style last Thursday with a well furnished house, a first-class physician and one patient with red hair.

Well, I have cut sprouts on the ditch in July; I have studied English under Dr. Hume; I have had hand to hand combats with toughs; I have been challenged to mortal combat by Buck Newton; I have attended a negro festival, and I have fled from a republican convention, but never before have I passed such a night as I did the night after the reception of that Keeley patient.

He gave me the first real good fright of my life. He was brought in late in the afternoon by his brother and a bosom friend. He was crazed by drink and he was an enemy to all things in sight. His brother gave me strict orders not to let him escape. That was the easiest thing of his life. Before anybody was aware of it he was in the street. Again he was brought in by his brother. That time I went out and employed an ex-policeman as an attendant and turned the patient over to him with strict orders not to allow him to escape. Then the doctor in charge permitted the fellow to get nearer the table on which he kept his medicines. The patient kicked the table into the air with great force and the medicines went to the wind. I went to supper and left the attendant in charge. Before I was through the servant boy came running and said that the patient had locked the attendant in a room and was out and gone; escaping through the remains of a window that he had sent his feet through. Truly he had fled. Again he was captured. He kicked several more times at a dollar a kick. His brother told us to watch him close or he would jump from the third floor and break his neck. The attendant watched him all night, but I could not sleep for fear that he would kill himself. But he is all right now. He is making a good patient.—Charlotte Observer.

SUIT IN PROGRESS TODAY.

Before C. W. Tillett, of Charlotte, Referee.

The suit of Roth, Brunner, Feist and the Greensboro National Bank vs. Mrs. M. A. Winstead and C. S. Winstead is being tried today before C. W. Tillett, of Charlotte, referee, appointed by the court with consent of parties to hear and report on the evidence.

The suit is to set aside a conveyance from J. M. Winstead, deceased, made during his life time to C. S. Winstead.

The estate involved is worth about $5,000. Messrs. W. W. Kitchen, C. S. Winstead, W. F. Reade and W. H. Long, of Roxboro, and E. D. Winstead, of Milton, are here in the matter.

The attorneys for the plaintiff are R. R. King and Bynum, Bynum & Taylor, while the defendant is represented by W. W. Kitchen, Boyd & Brooks and John Wilson.

The hearing may require a good part of tomorrow.

Taken to Raleigh.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer says:

John B. Barnes, the white man who attempted to outrage Miss Cora Yarboro at Rocky Mount last month, was brought here this morning and placed in jail. He was convicted of the crime charged and Judge Timberlake sentenced him to seven years in the penitentiary. He appealed and a $2,000 bond is required. Judge Timberlake sent him here for safe keeping. Feeling against Barnes is high in that section. He is very sullen and refused to do more than give his name.

Another Great Gold Strike.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 28.—A remarkable ore body has been uncovered in the Tombstone district, only a mile from the Pearce mine.

George Fittz, of Tombstone, has been working the property for more than a year, but with indifferent success until this week, when one of the richest gold-bearing ledges ever seen in Arizona was uncovered.

Thorough exploration has shown that it is permanent. The rock assays upward of $300 in gold and nearly $100 in silver to the ton, and forms a large, well-defined ledge.

BIG LOCK OUT THREATENED

As a Result Of The Cloakmakers Strike.

EMBEZZLER SENT TO THE PEN.

For Stealing A Pile From Columbian University—A Prominent Editor Touring the World.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 29.—Besides the strike of one hundred and thirty more operators in the shop of the contractors there is no new development today in the strike of the cloakmakers union. This is the dull season for the contractors and the officers and brotherhood fear that they will order a lock out of eight or ten thousand operators before the end of the week.

The contracts are expired now but the contractors association has promised not to act for a while.

HE GETS FIVE YEARS.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Chief Justice Bingham today sentenced Robert H. Martin, ex-treasurer of Columbian University, to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary for embezzlement of about fourteen thousand dollars from the funds of the university.

THE GAZETTE EDITOR.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Nov. 29.—Sidney James Low, the retiring editor of the St. James Gazette, starts for America in January on a tour of the world.

TOWN BURNING.

And Assistance is Called for From Outside.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Muncie, O., Nov. 29.—A fire at Farmland, twelve miles east of here, this morning, destroyed Meek's drug store, a new opera house, post office, and the station of the Big Four railroad. A chemical engine was the only protection. Assistance has been called for from adjoining towns. The fire started in Meek's drug store.

Sheehan is Better.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 29.—John C. Sheehan, the Tammany leader, who has been suffering from an acute attack of indigestion brought on by overwork is much better today. He passed a good night. He will take a short trip so soon as he is able.

Countervailing Duties Imposed.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The treasury department has decided to impose a countervailing duty on sugars imported from the Argentine Republic. A circular to this effect will be issued this week.

To Print $48,000,000.

Washington, Nov. 27.—Assistant Secretary Vanderlip today authorized the Director of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing to print and deliver to the U. S. Treasurer $48,000,000 as follows: United States notes $18,000,000; silver certificates $24,000,000; treasury notes of 1890 $6,000,000.

The Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Nov. 27.—The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Surplus reserve, decrease, $847,325; loans increase, $14,097,400; specie, increase, $500,300; legal tenders increase, $2,838,400; deposits, increase, $16,744,100; circulation, increase, $19,900.

The banks now hold $22,560,925 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent. rule.

The Central Cafe.

The room next to Ward's drug store is being arranged for a cafe. Oysters, game, choice fruits, and the delicacies of the season will be served in the best style. It is centrally and conveniently located, and every thing will be strictly first-class. The manager, Mr. E. M. Brady, is getting things in shape and will have an announcement in a few days. A cafe that makes a specialty of serving dainty lunch for ladies during shopping hours should do well here.

TWO YEARS IN THE PEN.

Hammond, the Murderer, is Sent up for That Time.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Salisbury, N. C., Nov. 29.—Gilmore Hammond, the young Tennessean who killed a man in a saloon here some weeks ago, has been found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. The case was given to the jury Saturday.

The evidence in the case went to show that Hammond committed the crime, in a measure, at least, in self defense.

The state's witnesses and the witnesses for the prisoner practically concurred in this particular and the light sentence is the result.

Hammond has been cool all through the trial, and takes his sentence largely as a matter of course.

Theo. F. Klutz was the lawyer for the defense.

CONCERT AT THE STATE NORMAL.

Frances Hughes Concert Company Next Friday Night.

On Friday night, Dec. 3rd, the Frances Hughes Concert Co. will give the second number of the course of this seasons entertainments. The Company includes Miss Frances Hughes, Harp Soloist; Mr. G. Rawson-Wade, Bass Baritone; Miss Lester, Soprano; Miss Carry Appy, Dutch 'Cellist, and Miss Bessie Godfrey, Pianist. The first two have been heard here before. Miss Appy is in America for the first time.

The Company have played at Ward Seminary, Nashville; Science Hall, U. of T., Knoxville; Rogersville (Tenn.) College, and at many other institutions, and their playing, as everywhere, aroused the greatest enthusiasm. They come here from Danville, and every one interested in, or a lover of, good music should not miss this opportunity of hearing the excellent programme they give.

THEIR THROATS WERE CUT.

Bodies Washed Ashore Strengthen a Rumor of Mutiny.

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 28.—John Canter, living near Washington, left his home some months ago on a pile drive bound for Newport News. Last week his body was washed ashore at Colonial Beach, in Westmoreland, 70 miles from here.

The throat was cut from ear to ear. Today comes a report that another body, also with the throat cut, was found there yesterday.

A rumor has been circulated hereabouts of a mutiny on an oyster boat, in which four or five men were killed. In view of the finding of the these bodies it has gained strength, although nothing definitely is known about it.

FEARS OF INDIAN MURDERS.

Indian Police Ordered to Round Up the Uintahs Who Disappeared.

Fort Duchesne, Utah, Nov. 28.—Ten Uintahs and one White River Indian are missing from the agency and the Indian police have been ordered to take the trail and not rest until they are overtaken. The motive for this order is the fear that the runaways are about carrying into effect the threats that they would exterminate the whites of Routt county, Col., in revenge for the killing of their tribesmen. It was reported at the time that four Indians had fallen, but it is now known that twelve were killed. The Governor of Colorado has appointed a committee of investigation. Elisha B. Reynolds, a special agent for the Indian Office at Washington, is here inquiring into the recent killing of Indians by game wardens in Colorado.

An Earthquake at Ashland, Va.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 27.—Ashland, 17 miles north of here, reports having experienced an earthquake shock at 3:56 o'clock this afternoon. The vibration was very distinct, and lasted about five seconds.

THE HORSE SHOW'S RIVAL

Still Continues at Long Island City.

AND RIVAL LIARS STILL LIE.

The Evidence Unfit for Ladies' Ears and the Court Room is Cleared—Thorne Pleads Accessory.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Long Island City, Nov. 29.—Martin Thorne went on the stand soon after the opening of court this morning. Continuing his evidence he said that Mrs. Nack had shot Guldensuppe after laying the plot to murder him. He reiterated the statement formerly made in his confession that he had merely helped Mrs. Nack dismember and dispose of the body.

The court opened promptly at 9:30. Thorne is looking pale and more nervous than previously. As soon as he was called upon the stand the Sheriff forced all of the hundred or more women, who were in attendance, from the galleries, except four. It was thought that Thorne's testimony was unfit for woman's hearing. Hereafter women will be barred out of the court room.

A NEGRO BURNED TO DEATH.

He Killed a White Man in Brunswick County.

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 27.—On Thanksgiving Day, Nathan Willis, a colored man living near Town Creek, Brunswick county, was arrested on the charge of murdering a young white man by the name of Stephens. Stephens was found in the vicinity of Wimple, N. C., with a gunshot wound in the back.

Thursday a mob was raised by the farmers in the country near the Waccamaw river. Willis was taken from the sheriff, carried into the woods and chained between two pine trees. Lightwood was then piled around him and he was burned to death, thus suffering death to pay the penalty for his crime.

After the murder suspicion at once rested on the colored man who had been seen in neighboring communities wearing some of Stephens' garments. He had also been seen driving the oxcart in which the murdered man was last seen alive, and $25 in money was found on his person, that, it was supposed, he took from his victim's pockets. The officers carried Willis to Conway jail, Horry county, S. C.

FISHERMEN CATCH A DEER.

The Animal Was Swimming Two Miles from Land.

Newport, Nov. 28.—Some Greek fishermen who were out some two miles to the eastward of Gooseberry Island in the open sea on Wednesday were astonished to see a deer swimming near their boat. They started toward the animal, and one of them seized it by the head. Although apparently exhausted, the deer put up a lively fight, and it was only after a hard tussle that it was finally hauled aboard the boat. The Greeks didn't do much fishing after that, but set sail for Newport with their prize.

It is supposed that the deer escaped from one of the private herds in this region, although it has not yet called for. A couple of years ago one strayed from its reservation at Jamestown and took to the water. It swam straight out to sea and was picked up several miles from land.

N. C. Fourth Class Postmasters.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The following fourth class postmasters in North Carolina were appointed today: Bandy, Jos. S. Bandy; Crutchland, L. F. Barnes; Coddle, B. W. Pressley; Miller's Creek, Reuben F. Wyatt; Old Hundred, John W. Woodward; Paw Creek, T. J. Sadler; Stewart, D. R. Cameron; Summerville, Mrs. Cora C. Bryan; Wakefield, L. W. Robertson; Winnie, Robert L. Bryan.

$2,000 to Reach the Klondike.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 28.—A letter from Julius Pohl, the Brown county man now trying to reach the Klondike gold fields, states that he has already spent more than $1,000 and does not consider it possible for any one to reach the gold district at less expense than $2,000, after bearing untold hardships. Pohl is the advance agent of a Kansas Klondike colony which will start March 1.

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. What better investment can the public make than by upholding an institution like this?

Those who wish a dollar a day rate at hotels can do no better than to stop at The Allen, this city. Read their ad in this paper.

The articles of Mr. H. C. Berger on the assignment question are attracting favorable comment. It is a question worthy of close study.

The Berger-Wood Company is placing its machinery and preparing to go to work at any early day. They are fitting up one of the most complete factories in the State.

The new store of Mr. G. W. St. Sing, on Spring Garden street, has been opened for business. He will keep a complete line of fruits and confections. Lookout for his advertisement.

The body of J. H. King, a young colored man of Redville, who had been studying medicine in Raleigh, passed through here yesterday evening, en route home. The cause of his death was not learned.

Rev. Dr. W. L. Grissom preached on the subject of "Hope" at the First Presbyterian church last night to a good congregation. It was a sermon of power, eloquently delivered, and clothed in well chosen words.

The Greensboro Dramatic club will begin rehearsals in a few days preparatory to opening this season at an early date. The high standard of work done heretofore will be sustained. Due notice will be given of presentation, caste, etc.

The recent rains, have caused a washout in the sidewalk on the west side of Arlington street beyond Centenary church. It is only necessary to call the attention of the street authorities to the danger to pedestrians on dark nights, and the evil will, we are sure, be remedied.

There is still complaint about the sewer at Washington and Davis streets. The little valley is still flooded at every rain and is a marsh all the time. Larger pipes have been left there but have not yet been placed. The matter should receive prompt attention.

H. C. Martin is moving his office from the Katz building to the handsome new Methodist Protestant publishing house on South Elm. One of the offices in the front of the building will be occupied by Mr. Martin and the other by Dr. Johnson, the eye specialist. Dr. Johnson will move into his office tomorrow.

The supper at the engine house on Thanksgiving night, given by the street supervisor, Sam Browne, to the street force, was an act of kindness which was highly appreciated. The supper was of the best to be had and was prepared in the best of style and served to all the hands, both white and colored. To say that these workmen appreciated the kindness of Mr. Browne is putting it mildly.

The views of the road improvement which have been in the Piedmont Bank window for some time, and which have attracted such wide-spread attention, have been placed in a window at C. E. Holton's drug store, in the McAdoo House building. These are the views which were taken expressly for The Telegram to show the people what is being done in our country, and the advantage of good roads.

In the absence of Rev. A. P. Tyer, who was to have preached at Centenary church yesterday, Rev. Dr. T. N. Ivey, who was present to listen and not to preach, was prevailed upon to preach; and how well he performed this duty is known by all who heard him. The sermon was a powerful one full of rich thought and eloquent language. It is good proof that Dr. Ivey is a ready man.

KEEP IT AT HOME.

Patronize Greensboro Merchants and Manufacturers.

There have been volumes written and spoken along the line patronizing home industries. Some of it has been well said and has been as seed sown in good ground. Some of it has fallen in stony places and has been productive of no fruit. There yet remains much to be accomplished before we can boast of the prosperous city and country we ought to have.

Let us take the articles of clothing for both men and women. We have here in Greensboro clothiers who are up-to-date, who deal in the latest styles and best goods. We also have people here who send away for ready-made clothing. We have here tailors who know their business, who do first-class work, and we have here men who prefer to give their orders to people who do no better work and who do not spend a cent in Greensboro.

We have here dealers who are prepared to serve lady customers with just as good goods in cloaks, wraps, and other articles of feminine wearing apparel, and yet some of our people prefer to spend their money away from home. What is the logical conclusion of all this? It forces local dealers, sometimes, to carry over a lot of goods in styles which are out-of-date the next season, and causes him to make a sacrifice that often cripples business to get rid of the old goods.

If you desire to see stores in your town that will compare with the retail stores of Baltimore, stick to your local dealers. The more wealthy class of people are the ones who can easily bring about this reform.

Buy everything you need from your home dealer, and it will not be long before it will tell, and Greensboro's already magnificent stores will have to enlarge and you will have trading palaces equal to those of any city.

If Reed Will Let 'Em.

Congressman Kitchin who is here on legal business says that he has no doubt that Congress will pass the resolution recognizing the Cubans as belligerents if Tom Reed will let the members vote their real sentiments. He says that democrats and republicans alike favor the passage of the resolution but Reed has said it shall not pass. The question is whether Reed will adhere to his determination. Mr. Kitchin also says that there is a sentiment in Congress opposed to the committees being appointed by the speaker, holding that it places too much power in his hands and that it would be better to have the committees chosen by Congress itself as is the case with the senatorial committees.
